Richard Scott's "Demonstration" was an informative and interesting "lesson" in drawing. Those of us that were able to participate learned some valuable and timeless tools in drawing and composition!! Here are Richard's thoughts on the winners:

BEST OF SHOW:

Benita M. Gleason, Father's Day:

June 2014 AWARD WINNERS

“Superb in terms of composition, shape and in color!” Richard appreciated Bonnie’s use of complimentary colors within the focal point. He remarked about her nice “abstract design” and great ability to shift from cool to warm colors! Congratulations Bonnie!

OIL AND ACRYLIC:

1st Alexandra Babic, Zinnia:

“Strong composition and good drawing.” Richard appreciated Alexandras subtle and thoughtful value changes and color temperature.

WATER MEDIA:

1st Brigitte Pfahl, Guard Dog

“Nice composition and balance of shapes!” Richard appreciated Brigitte’s use of complimentary colors in the focal area, and control of tonal values.

PASTEL/DRAWING/PRINTMAKING

1st Beverly Bell, Willie Nelson:

“Interesting Work! Terrific balance of shapes, with a dynamic composition!”

DIGITAL ART:

1st Robert Ochs, Black & Tan:

“Beautiful arrangement of shapes, with thoughtfully arranged negative space. Strong and simple design!”

PHOTOGRAPHY:

1st Charles Dozer, Up the Scary Staircase:

“Outstanding abstract composition with a clear focal point! Highest contrast in the focal area used very effectively. Wonderful work!”

MIXED MEDIA/SCULPTURE:

1st Phillis Gifford, Florescence:

“Good composition! Nice use of complimentary colors at the focal point. Good use of transparent and opaque color application.”

Congratulations to all the winners!
