

Chuck McPherson Bio

In his eighth year as a watercolorist, Chuck has garnered hundreds of awards for his artwork and holds triple Signature status with the Western Federation of Watercolor Societies, National Watercolor Society and The San Diego Watercolor Society.

He served as Third VP on the NWS Board, two years as the Member Shows Director on the SDWS Board, and three years as Newsletter Chair on the San Diego Museum of Art Artists Guild Board. Today he is the 1st Vice President of the Foothills Art Association.

With a wide reputation for his "intuitive" watermedia stylings, Chuck was invited to display in a dual museum exhibit, "Nature Improved: San Diego Artists Interpret Our Landscape", at the Oceanside Museum of Art and San Diego History Center in Balboa Park. Two paintings were displayed during the Balboa Park Centennial at the Marston House Museum. Five watercolors graced the walls of the Muckenthaler Museum's NWS Invitational Plein Air Exhibition.

Chuck paints full-time, following his passion and building a reputation with large and intimate audiences. Brandishing a quick wit and a 6" brush, he flamboyantly embellishes his art with props borrowed from the crowd... like lipstick and coffee. His unique approach to creating makes his demonstrations and workshops entertaining as well as educational. He also serves as a discerning art show juror.

Chuck recently co-founded www.BallastPointGallery.com where he offers workshops, paint-alongs and composition clinics and serves as a discerning art show juror. He teaches intermediate and advanced watercolor sessions in at the Art Academy of San Diego.
