

ELAINE HARVEY NWS SDWS

Elaine Harvey works in transparent watercolor, acrylic, and mixed media in a style which combines realistic and abstract elements. Her more than 70 awards include those of the American Watercolor Society, Rocky Mountain Watermedia Society, San Diego Watercolor Society's International, Watercolor West, the Signature American Watercolor Exhibition (Fallbrook) and the Adirondacks Exhibition of American Art. Jury assignments have included National Watercolor Society and many other civic and art society competitions throughout the United States. Elaine currently teaches classes and workshops for the Athenaeum and UCSD Extension.

"The sights around me and the images and thoughts in my head guide my hand as I apply the paint, and the flowing paint evokes new images, relationships, and truths which become a part of the art. Each painting is a combination of past experience and present discovery." Elaine L. Harvey
