

Kevin Davidson

Kevin Graduated with BFA in illustration from Art Center College of Design in 1973. He has been a freelance illustrator for almost 4 decades, working with local ad agencies and designers, as well as national publishers. Around 2001 he began to take a watercolor class from noted exhibitor at the Watercolor Gallery in Laguna Beach, Barbara Stutheit. It was in her class that a fellow student gave Kevin a few sheets of Yupo plastic synthetic "paper". He tried in on an illustration and liked it so well that he used it on a seascape in the class, and has been using it almost exclusively ever since for watercolor. "The Yupo and Plein Air Painting are a perfect match for my style of painting," he notes. "The ability to completely lift the paint allows for great flexibility when on location, and when I get back to the studio, I can take my time for cleanup without fear of overworking. I love the freshness and intensity of color I get with it."
