

BEVERLY BELL

Beverly Bell is from Detroit, where music is everywhere present. Coming to San Diego she brought the vibrant sounds with her. The rhythm and subject matter find it's way onto her paper and canvas. Beverly is a life-long artist and studied with Robert Landry, Carl Provder and Charles Reid. She received her art degree from San Diego State University.

There are no hidden messages, in her art.
The images are basically to evoke a smile and stir the music within yourself.
