

BIO – SCOTT BEALE

Scott Beale is a local artist and San Diego native based in Leucadia. Surfing since he was six, he has always been fascinated with waves, drawing and creating images of them since grade school. He is a stay at home parent for his 15 year old son, Jacob. Working out of his home studio he creates glass mosaics and sculptures made from recycled materials and exotic woods.