League & Gallery

December, 2019

---

Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays! Congratulations to Ursula Schroter for her silk-painting , "Graceful Blossom", that won December Best-of-Show! We held our Annual Meeting and Brunch at the Gallery on the 7th and discussed many important topics looking forward into 2020. We approved the position of Chair, Art-on-the-Green, to Director.

Bruce Bartells was awarded the "Volunteer-of-the-Year for 2019, for his support over the years and his continuing work as Treasurer.

Our calendar for 2020 is complete and will be published soon and includes important dates, "SIS" topics and special events! We need volunteer help on committees for Publicity, Childrens' Show, Gallery Programs, and a Brushmark Chair. Please contact Gertrude or me to let us know your interests for helping.

An analysis of existing numbers through the end of November, show that we have had about 9000 visitors to the Gallery. The average shrink-wrap sells for $48.26, cards $12.13, and art is $251.51.

Your Board is already forging ahead into 2020 looking forward to your membership renewal and ongoing support to join us in 2020!

Personal Best, Chuck Dozer

COAL Judge and "Demo" Artist for January 2020 !

Joe is a life-long artist striving to create art that evokes an emotional response. His use of color, light, and shadow are exaggerated to capture the imagination. Although his work is representational, for this artist it's more about the atmosphere, feeling, and emotion of a painting.

Joe loves to capture the landscape, and his most recent work captures the beauty and romance of Spanish-style architecture. In addition to a Bachelor of Fine Art degree from California State University Fullerton, Joe credits many art books, magazines, websites and fellow artists with helping his career along. He believes his greatest influence and source of knowledge has been teaching painting classes and workshops for the past six years.
